We're prioritizing.

It's our job to figure out what the priorities are of that week or that day or that month, and make the sacrifices...

It's a sacrifice getting your cash flow right vs. getting your 1099s out in time.

It's a sacrifice reporting "squishy" numbers from evolving processes vs. hard close numbers.

I like to travel internationally.

My wife and I have been to Iceland a bunch of times - it's only 5 hours from Boston, but it feels like you're on another planet.
