What do month end close activities include?

Get into the details of tracked prepaids, accruals, upcoming invoices etc... avoid figuring out and paying late penalty fees on your first day.

Who are the individuals on my team and what are their responsibilities?

Understand the level and type of experience for each person and current duties... does the person expect to be owning all AP workflows or do they expect only to be paying invoices?

What is my expected role and responsibilities?

Ask, ask, ask. Because you don't want to join and think "Oh man, why didn't I ask for this? Why didn't I ask for that? What's going on?" Ask to be better prepared and aligned on expectations

I like legos.

I didn't have legos growing up, but 15 years ago I saw a Star Wars set I liked...this was the start of my collection.

Now, when Santa comes, my son and I each get a lego set so we don't fight for it.
